SEEN, HEARD & TOLD BY THE EDITOR

We cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard. Acts 4:20

Hot Springs, Arkansas
Tuesday, April 21, 1953

Mabel and I tied up here at the Majestic Hotel Sunday afternoon and have been "thru the mill" in the bath house twice so far. I have not looked at Mabel's feet but my feet (even the bottoms of them) are as clean as they were when mama used to bathe me.

I dont know whether these baths will help me, but they wont hurt me. They are just like a spring tonic to Mabel. She comes here quite often but she comes BEFORE she getts sick. Mabel takes a massage everytime she takes a bath. So far I have not been rubbed.

We came by Greenville then to Pine Bluff, then on 270 to Hot Sprngs, rather than by Memphis, then on No. 70 to Hot Sprngs. This is considerably shorter than by Memphis, but there is some rough reconstruction work on 270 just this side of Hot Springs. I think we will detour that rough spot when we come home Saturday.

Ellett Lawrence is supposed to be here today - stopping at the Arlington, of course. We may get togehter, and may not. Each of us is considerably older now. Things that used to interest us, years ago, dont interest us anymore. When we were younger, we might have had 'er time together here. Alas, we are older now. About all we can do about youthful things is look back on them with nostalia. I imagine, if we do get together, about all that is left for us is to "shoot pool", a game we used to consider puerile indeed. About all Ellett and I can do is "look back" reminiscenely to what we "used to do". Alas!!

Since I have about quit gambling, I have made only a very superficial examination of the town. I think it was the Ohio Cigar Store where, years ago, there was an open crap game located, if it were in Dyre-Kents, right about where Kent keeps his pop corn machine. I got a "visitor's card" there today, went in, but saw nothing but some slot machines, a bar and some of there nickle-catchers - no dice table, no poker lay-out, and no racing returns - and private retreats, one marked "men", one "ladies". I did not go inside The Citizens Cigar Store, where Max Yeager and I visited years ago, but it looked very innocent and demure from the OUTSIDE.

We hear that Sam's old place, on the Carroll County Gold Coast has reopened for business.

They are having a real Fish Derby here. It is so important that the headquarters tent is erected in a prominent paved street in the middle of town. Fishing is a big "industry" here, and big prizes are offered for biggest fish, biggest catch, etc. $5000 is value of all prizes. By the way, what's happened to Grenada's Fish Derby for 1953.

I was lazy when I got here. I am much lazIER now, with these hot baths. Mabel is at the picture show, seeing Irving Berlin's "Call Me Madame", but I am back in the room, UNlaXed, and will probably take a nap later.

Things here are expensive, but not all THAT expensive. We have a nice twin-bed room at $7 a day. At noon today we had a nice lunch (all I wanted and all I needed) in the main dining room for 85c each.

You buy (and pick up) lots of daily newspapers here. We buy the Commercial, OUR paper, every day. But what I consider the very BEST is the Arkansas Gazette of Little Rock. This is said to be the first paper published West of the Mississippi River and it is a dern good newspaper. Even the cross-word puzzles are hard to solve, like those of the New York Times. Ordinarily cross-word puzzles are usually duck soup to me, but not the one in the Sunday's Gazette.

Fed Robinson in Pine Bluff will be interested to know that we ran into Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Railsback, his fellow citizen, and mighty nice folks, here. Mr. R. is a CPA in Pine Bluff.

MY bunch of keys is very important to ME. I could not find mine this morning, but went to the room clerk, told her my troubles. She looked into a drawer, and there was MY bunch of keys. Where I lost them I just dont know. But there they were in Lost & Found drawer!!

Was just thinking of what Ellett Lawrence told me about Hot Springs when he said there was nothing in H. S. to do except gamble. The truth of the matter, is rather, there aint much old fellows like him and me CAN do, except fish and gamble. Fish are not biting and he and I have learned not to gamble on the other fellow's game. On the contrary, there's lots to do here, but the BEST thing, for fellows like us to do is REST, and this is an ideal place to rest, and that is what I am doing.

Mabel had time here, but never time at home, to read "Men Working" by John Faukner. She, too, enjoyed it and has seen every Oxford character in the book, in Grenada during the WP&A days.

I am writing this with my pen. I am too dern lazy to cross the street and get my portable from the trunk of the car.

MRS. EDNA KLINE, 67, DIES IN VICKSBURG

Was Daughter Of G. W. Eatman, Grenada Druggist

Mrs. Edna Eatman Kline, talented daughter of a prominent Grenada family, passed away in Vicksburg Wednesday, April 15, 1953.

She was born in Grenada to the late Mr. and Mrs. George W. Eatman. Her parents both came from Gozallas, Texas about 70 years ago. Mr. Eatman operated a drug store in the building now occupied by Max McCormack and the building was owned by Mrs. Kline at the time of her death.

Mr. Eatman built the large yellow two storied house at the corner of College and Margin Streets which was torn down by J. H. Oliver about 12 years ago. Dr. S. W. James' home occupies the lot where the Eatman house formerly stood.

Mrs. Eatman, mother of Mrs. Kline, was a most talented musician and taught music to Mrs. Kline. Later Mrs. Kline attended MSCW and a music conservatory in Boston, Mass. She and Mr. Kline made their home at Bovina, near Vicksburg, and Mrs. Kline taught music in Vicksburg.

Mrs. Kline is survived by: her husband; a son, Georze Kline; a half brother, George Lowe Eatman and a half sister, Gerald. The whereabouts of the brother and sister were not known and they could not be located for the funeral. The GCW was unable to learn Mr Kline's name or the married name of Mrs. Kline's half sister, Gerald.

Another sister, Eva Eatman, was killed in an accident on Lake Michigan in 1917.

The funeral was held at Odd Fellows Cemetery Friday afternoon and conducted by Rev. E. R. Henderson. Garner Bros. Funeral Home had charge.

Their catch consisted of 45 bream, white perch and bass caught on April 8 in Blow Hole at Sardis Reservoir. They used minnows and worms.

Ardent piscators, the pair took advantage of their first free Wednesday afternoon of the year to go fishing.

—Dist. Texaco Meeting Friday—

Jack Scott, divisional manager, made a speech. Knox Pierce, Grenada County Texaco distributor, was local host. They were served supper at the Barwin Hotel.

—CORRECTION—

Miss Lucille Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie R. Dunn of Holcomb, who won the Grenada County spelling bee this year is 13 years old, not 14 as was stated incorrectly in last week's GCW.

Fredia Juchheim Is Valedictorian

Fredia Juchheim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Juchheim, has been selected valedictorian of the 1953 graduating clas sat Grenada High School.

Shirley Wagner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Wagner is salutatorian.

J. C. Hathorn, supt., City Schools, also announced the names of three other senior girls whose average was 92 or above: Shirley Gillon, Bobby Gene Cook and Joan Phillips.

I have met a lot of gdrepublicans from the NAWTH, here. All is fish that comes to the H. S. net.

The picture show was over an hour ago, but Mable aint back yet, but you men know how wimmen are - they have to shop in windows.

Since I have already mentioned Ellett Lawrence, I had better mention the others who expect their names in the GCW. Cliff Hamby, Tommie Darras, Sax Weir and A. Cohen.

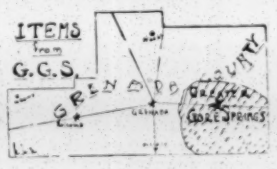
While the Majestic is already well known, we wish to add our dime's worth by saying that it is a very fine comfortable place to rest and relax in Arkansas's spa, Hot Sprngs, and not TOO expensive, considering everything.

I also want to make a recommendation to Geo. Washington and other pipe smokers. Arkansas does not tax the po' man's joy - pipe tobacco, 2 cents a package, like po' misipi does.



Recent guests in the Guy A. James home were Mrs. Carrie Herrington, Los Angeles, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McHenry and mother, Mrs. Lucas of Memphis; Mrs. Belle James, Grenada.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Spraberry and family were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Spraberry of Bellefountaine.

Mrs. O. D. Trussell, Jr., Billy Shaw and Mrs. Guy Chhea attended the Sunday School Conference held in Calhoun City Baptist Church on April 16th.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Freeman, Ruston, La. and Mrs. Belle James, Grenada were guests of Mr. and Mrs F. E. Gillon on Friday. Other recent visitors were Mrs. Rogers Parker of Grenada and Mrs. Carrie Herrington of Los Angeles, Calif.

Henry Boswell Society Membership Drive Now On

The Henry Boswell Society has its membership drive on again! All ex-patients of the Sanatorium, all ex-patients of any Sanatorium, are invited, and welcomed as members of The Henry Boswell Society.

We are building toward a great Homecoming Day on October 4, an occasion which affords contacts of old friends and co-patients - people whom you, as ex-patients, haven't seen in years - as well as a program up to par in fun for all.

The Society recently installed a television set in the lobby of the Sanatorium for the pleasure and entertainment of the patients. Needless to say, this TV set is surrounded by enthusiastic patients all visiting hours, and much enjoyment is derived from it.

Our ultimate goal is the backing of a workshop for rehabilitation ex-patients - an extensive workshop program that will enable countless disabled ex-tubercular - patients to obtain employment on a staggered work hour basis; a program that will supply the bread of life to those unable to work eight hours a day as the average person does.

Membership dues are set at a minimum of $1.00; you may give what you like in excess of that. Please make checks payable to "The Henry Boswell Society" and forward to Sanatorium, Miss.

To those who are interested in learning more about this Society and program, whether he be an ex-patient or an interested friend, he may contact Miss Sarah Elaine Green, your "Henry Boswell Society" Representative in this county. She will be able to give you first hand information on the Society's aims and goals.

—Reservoir Committee—

SUMMER WAS SHORT; ICE SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Tommie Darras aptly remarked "we surely had a short summer."

Strangely enough, about the coldest weather Grenada has had this year came over the weekend, in the last part of April!

Temperatures went below freezing both Saturday and Sunday nights. Ice was on the ground both Sunday and Monday mornings.

County Library And National Sports Week

This is National Sport Week. We wish to thank Grenada Hardware Co for the loan of sport equipment to make a very attractive display, with posters and books on the subject. The days grow shorter and the days grow longer, young people are thinking more and more of sports and outdoor activities. The women's world is no less keen on flowers and yards right now, but there is a storm in the men folks that must mean Fish are Rising. It is hoped that the books on sports of all kinds now on display in the library will aid the borrowers in enjoying their favorite relaxation. The library will not be closed on Wednesday afternoons until the close of school, come and browse.

Outdoor Sports the Year Round; Sports For Fun; Table Sports and Games - Keith; Partners in Play - Breen; When the Fish are Rising; Fleming; Winning Football, Peirman; How to Watch Football, Little; Do You Know Football?; Jiu Jutsu Lewis; Basketballe, Hobson; Tennis Made Easy, Budge; Tennis, Jacobs; First Book of Baseball, Play Ball!

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Scripture: Acts 13:36—18:22.
Devotional Reading: Psalm 61.

A Saint

Lesson for April 26, 1953

A SAINT: what picture does that word call up? A haggard figure in a loud-colored robe, sitting in a stained glass window? A hermit in a lonely cell, praying incessantly to God? All wrong. Saints have pretty stormy lives, as a matter of fact, and it often happens that the people who boarded with them did not realize they were saints at the time. Our famed St. Paul is no exception. He was, as we remember, a missionary; and missionaries have their troubles. They are something like salesmen; and like most salesmen, they are not selling in a vacuum. They are selling against some pretty keen opposition and competition. The story of Paul's work is like a series of fights. Indeed at the end of his life he summed it all up by saying, "I have fought the good fight."

Dr. Foreman

Big Cities Are Bad

Paul was up against it all the time, one way or another. A good sample of the sort of thing that made his work hard was his stay in Corinth, not to mention his troubles with the Corinthians ever after. Corinth was one of the great cities of the Roman Empire at that time. It was a transfer point for cargoes bound from the east to the empire's capital, Rome. It was a center for professional athletics. Everybody in the place had the idea of getting rich as fast as possible. It was not noted for culture or for religion or morals. Indeed it was so bad that its morals would make a Roman policeman blush. When Paul wrote Roman 1 he was living in Corinth, and the horrible picture he draws is no more than he could see, so to speak, looking out of his window. Now big cities contain much good. They are the centers of world-wide Christian activities, in many cases today. But big cities are bad too, as everybody knows, and for much the same reason that Corinth was bad. The one god worshipped there, by the majority of its citizens, is Mammon, Money. Why do people crowd into big cities? Most of them are there, directly or indirectly, because they hope to make money faster than they could back home. What chance has the gospel of love in such a place? A real chance; but it has to fight.

Half-Religion

Paul stuck to cities for his missionary work because he was, after all, a city man and understood city people. But still it was a fight. Besides the indifference of people who cared for no god but themselves, there was bitter opposition from people who already had a religion, and a right good one. Paul suffered sharper attacks from the Jews than he ever did from downright pagans. People who already have something good are more likely to be fanatical against what is better than are people who have nothing. For instance, nowadays the great new revision of the Bible is getting more bitter opposition from people who have a good but old translation—the King James—than from people who don't have Bible at all.

Highbrows

In Acts 17 there is told at some length what is only hinted at in Acts 18—the kind of trouble Paul had with the Greeks. In dealing with Greeks he was up against the true highbrows of his time. The Jew had a very practical mind; but the Greek mind was always worrying with very difficult questions, to which the answers have not all been given even down to this present day. Paul had to argue with these people — he couldn't just knock them over the head with Bible texts; the Greek mind didn't bash in easily. And Paul won some of them. Indeed he was more successful with them than he was with his own people, somewhat to his own astonishment. But that is one hurdle that Christianity meets everywhere: the opposition of people who want to have all their questions answered before they will consent to believe. There is surely nothing wrong in having a bright mind, and nothing at all wrong in having the best education one can absorb. But any person who insists on God's explaining himself to him before he, the man, will give his heart to God, is demanding the wrong thing. God's grace is for the humble.

SPORTSMAN COLUMN

(By C. C. Hamby, Sr.)

Turkey season closed April 10. Five Grenada men were lucky enough to kill nice gobblers. They were: Homer Williams, George Woods, Walter Garner and Estes and Ernest Maxwell. They reported turkeys as plentiful.

Set hooks and trot line fishermen are having their day. The cat fish sure have been eating it up. Most everybody have caught several cat fish, using large gold fish for bait. From what I can find out, must trot line and set hook fishermen, they all say they have tried most all kind of bait but they are having better luck with large gold fish. The largest catfish reported caught weigh ed 23½ lbs., caught by Dick Trusty on Yalobusha River.

The blue gills are beginning to wake up and take roaches and crayfish. Andrew Whitaker, Leo Rasberry and Tat Holland reported catching around 60 on White Lake last weekend. Other lakes in good shape & bream are being caught in each of these are: Caney, Wolf, Bear, Otter, Grassy and Yonkepin.

Crappie fishermen haven't had very much luck the past week or 10 days. This was due to unsettled weather, cool, windy, rainy and the lake was on a rise. It is my opinion the moon signs were not right. I predicted two weeks ago the fish (crappie and bass) were going to be caught by nice strings for several days and three days after the moon was full, then they were going to slacken up and were not going to bite for a week or 10 days. This has proven true. I predict, beginning next week and on through until 3 or 4 days after the moon is full, that is up to and including around the 5th of May, the crappie and bass are really going to take minnows and plugs. Watch this and see if I am not right.

The Grenada County Wildlife League is progressing fine. In a few days they are going to put on their annual drive for renewal of members and new members. Let's all join. Membership is what counts. Nearly 400 last year and they are going after 500 this year. Should have no trouble at all getting this 500 and should be 800 or more.

Any information you desire on the League or fishing, come by or phone the shell service station for the latest dope.

SEEN, HEARD & TOLD BY THE EDITOR

I am not trying to sell a book, but recommend you BORROW and read "Men Working" by John Falkner. I read it years ago, and read it again recently in one of these 2-bit reprints. Every WP and A character that you knew in Grenada County are inFaukner's book, even if they have Oxford names. The book had a "Mr. Will", who told the boys to come back tomorrow for their cards and mules or furnish, was in the book, just like he lived, if under another name, right here in Grenada County. You will relive a tragic era if you borrow and read that book. The Grenada County fellow's name began, like Mr. Will's name, with a W., but it was not Will.

Here's a renewal from Mrs. Steigler of Humbolt, Tenn. The GCW Gets Around.

Lt. J. W. Bowen, Jr., now in Japan or some other hellacious place, has had his expiration date moved up a few months.

Who recalls when that ridge just west of what we call the Dave Dogan house on No. 7 west of town, had one house after another, each containing a Rhodes family. There was a host of folks named Rhodes there. Unless I am badly mistaken, the only one of that name left here is Christine Rhodes.

As time passed on laboriously., an observer could see both Squire Boushe and his old home out west of town, each gradually disintegrated. Just about the time Uncle Charlie died, the ridge timber of the old kitchen 'of the old home caved in.

L. E. Dixon of Sacremento should get on his postmaster. Every now and then, his copy apparently clearly marked, comes back from the postal department, marked "Unknown."

Please change my address in your files to 715 12th St., N. W., Wishington, D. C. We moved in January, after tying up books for four months previously. Man, what a job! 250,000 or 300,000 books is quite a mountain! We put in one mile of new shelving, besides moving all our old shelving too. Figger that out at present prices of lumber. I don't want to move again! When we'd moved 80 tons of books, our customers couldn't even tell that any had

BUILDING FOR MISSISSIPPI'S FUTURE

The telephone installer you may have watched at work in your home did only one of the many jobs necessary to make your first call possible . . . Cable crews brought cable from the central office to your neighborhood; others tested circuits, erected poles, installed equipment.

In the past 7 years these crews have expanded our facilities in Mississippi to take care of more than 130,000 new telephones. The work cost Southern Bell more than 72 million dollars but it makes everyone's telephone more useful and strengthens our lines of defense.

New Book Stations Opened In County

There have been two book stations opened up in the county this month, at the store of Mr. Charles Ligon, Gore Springs crossroads.

books for that community are now available.

The Futheyville community is now served from the store of J. E. Nail, since the closing of the Weir grocery.

It is hoped that the people of these communities will use the new library service now offered free to them. New books will be taken each month so as to keep a fresh supply. We wish to thank these public spirited people who give their time and space for the community good. We ark the cooperation of the citizens in returning the books so that others may use them and in taking care of them.

Other stations are at the home of Mrs. J. E. Little at Holcomb, Mrs. Ivy Criss at Elliott, Mrs. R. H. McCormick on Highway 7. Of course books have been kept in both schools the entire year. Now that the school year is about over, it is hoped that some of the county children will visit the library in town, as it is open on Saturdays.

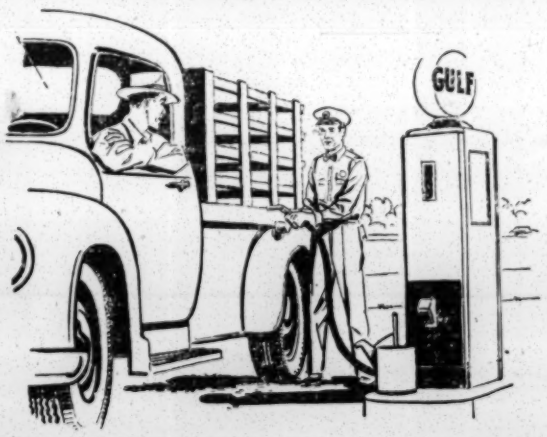
"Say, I hear—GULF leased the Mitchell place..."



..., even that swampy stretch that Mitchell couldn't raise even scrub cattle on. This'll be the first time Mitchell ever got a dime out of that land!"

Lease bonuses and rentals have put new money into landowners' pockets all over Mississippi, even in counties where no oil or gas has yet been discovered... where production has been established, royalties have swelled Mississippi incomes. GULF paid direct to landowners in 44 Mississippi counties more than $3 million last year in bonuses, rentals and royalties.

Over $15 million GOOD GULF DOLLARS spent in Mississippi last year for leases, payrolls, royalties, taxes and purchases of goods and services are helping expand Mississippi's general economy. GULF's investment to date in its Mississippi operations amounts to more than $100 million.

In working toward their own goal—to find and produce oil—the men and women of GULF are making a substantial contribution toward the goal of all Mississippians... toward achieving a balanced, ever-expanding economy ...a better life for all.

Lovely roses, sweet peas, iris and narcissus were arranged in numerous bouquets by the ladies who gave the party for her, most of the group present were members of Mrs. Campbell's Methodist Sunday School Class and co-members with Mrs. Campbell in the WSCS.

Mrs. Campbell has lived in the same house since she was a bride at the age of 20 years. Her husband was the respected Dr. Campbell, who died many years ago.

The ladies brought Mrs. Campbell many lovely and useful gifts, and during the social, birthday cake and punch were served.

Only recently the members of Mrs. Campbell's Class and WSCS presented a bronze plaque to the church, in honor of Mrs. Campbell's faithfulness. It now adorns the wall of the church's vestibule.

One of Mrs. Campbell's dear friends, and a former member of her class, Mrs. R. H. Herring of Clarksdale, was the only out of town guest present. She, with her daughter, Mrs. Frances Herring Bernard and 2 children motored to Grenada for this lovely party, attended by 24 ladies.

Memories? . . . why, everybody has them I guess . . . and maybe its good for you to reach back into your yesterdays and relive some of those days that were good to you. I'll take take five o'clock on Sunday afternoons for my retrospection because that's about the time our Sunday company used to leave and we'd realize the day of rest and worship was ended which always depressed me no end, and until this day I feel lonely at five o'clock on Sundays. Usually its very little things that open the doors to our reminiscences . . . for instance hearing on the radio the beautiful song Trees, opened a very little door to the time many years ago, probably shortly after Joyce Kilmer wrote the song, I bought it on a record and played it a hundred times in one evening on that old phonograph our mother bought for us kids on a plan of 50 cents down and 50 cents a week . . . well that's memories. Then I found an old metal walking cane in my clothes closet with which I sported around the Exposition grounds in Chicago in 1934, and seeing that cane reminded me of the enjoyable trip Ada, Gerry, Sonny and I had at the World Fair which turned out to be the last pleasure trip we all ever had together as little Sonny went away soon after that.

On a trip last week I passed the college where daughter Gerry attended and discovered the Physical Ed. building had burned, and seeing it there dilapidated was reminded that it was there Gerry was crowned "Queen of Hearts" or the most popular girl . . . then got to thinking of the places we've lived and the host of fine people we claim as our friends. So it was a good hour last Sunday filled with memories and dreams. The experience made me feel a little older but also thankful that I'm still around with time to dream.

I wonder . . . just wonder, if its safe to ask . . . if any readers of this column would send me a postal card or a note to say if they have a special "dream" time in a day . . . or what day . . . and how far back can you remember . . . and what do you enjoy remembering the most? Address Box 736, Pine Bluff, Arkansas or in care of GCW.

Here is a good thought: A large collie dog came to church every Sunday and watched the crowd intensely and it was plainly seen he was looking for his master who had died while the dog was at the veterinarian's. If you had such a dog, and were absent, where would he go to look for you! Well, dont know about dogs but a man will hang around the places where his heart is. It might be at his place of business where he makes his money, or at the bank where he has put his money, or if he is a large contributor to the church, he will be found there every time its doors are opened. Where his heart is? Why sure, thats the same place where his money is.

There was a tiny little ad in our paper the other day reading " Lost - 3 legged red deer hound with left hind leg off at knee. No collar, grass string around neck." We hope the owner never finds him because when the poor dog broke his leg they just cut it off and never regarded him valuable enough to buy him a collar, just embarrassed him with a grass string around his neck. The dog got to thinking about all these things and his feelings were hurt and while he still had 3 legs to go on, he just up and lefgt the whole mess and who blames him?

Our preacher says many people console themselves that they are Cross Bearers if they have a mean husband to endure, or a nagging wife to live with, or if some of the common misfortunes befall them. But, he says that is not cross bearing at all but just burdens of life. To bear a cross for the Lord one must volunteer to accept tasks and service for the exclusive building of the Kingdom of God and the more the sacrifice the bigger the cross.

HOW ARE PRESCRIPTION PRICES DETERMINED?

The cost of medical care has increased along with that of other necessities of life. Moreover, sickness seems to strike most frequently at a time when it is the most difficult to pay. In recognition of this situation, we are pleased to publicize our prescription pricing policy. We do not offer bargains, nor do we claim to undersell. Prescription prices are determined by the cost of ingredients and operating expense. Our prices are as low as efficient service and quality drugs will permit. Above all, they are fair.

JITNEY-JUNGLE RECIPE OF THE WEEK!

CONGEALED PINEAPPLE SALAD

Dissolve 1 tblsp. unflavored gelatin in 1 cup of pineapple juice. Add to gelatin 1 cup boiling water, one-fourth cup sugar, 1 tblspn. of vinegar, juice of half lemon and one-fourth tsp. salt. Let this mixture stay in refrigerator until it begins to congeal; then add 1 cup crushed pineapple, 1 cup of chopped marshmellows, 1 cup of Philadelphia cream cheese which has been creamed with ¼ cup wesson oil mayonnaise. After the mixture has been mixed thoroughly, pour in molds and congeal. Serve on lettuce with mayonnaise.

WESSON OIL MAYONNAISE

1 egg or 2 egg yolks — 1 tsp. dry mustard
1 tsp. salt — ½ tsp. paprika
1 tsp. sugar — 2 cups Wesson Oil
3 tbsps. lemon juice or vinegar

Beat egg with salt, sugar, mustard, and paprika, using your Wesson Oil Mayonnaise Maker. Add Wesson Oil a little at a time, beating constantly, until a thick mixture forms. As your mayonnaise thickens, you can add the oil more rapidly, beating constantly. When it is very thick, beat in lemon juice or vinegar. This will thin the mayonnaise slightly. Add remaining oil gradually, beating until well blended.

Soil Conservation Service Record Told

Since the Grenada County Soil Conservation District was organized in 1945, it has been active in guiding local farmers toward a better land use program that will result in a mroe permanent type of agriculture.

The District, under the direction of Commissioners L. J. Doak, J. W. Martin, J. G. Shaw, W. H. Clark, and D. K. Hayden, have led the way in guiding cooperating farmers in making land use changes that will more closely fit the crop to the land.

A review of the district records show that 40.0 farmers are now cooperating in the district program. Approximately 100,000 acres are covered by soil and water conservation plans.

Progress made by the district during the time it has been operating includes 11,016 acres improved pastures, 8075 acres planted to cover crops, 250 acres tree planting, 330 acres kudzu, 500 acres sericea, 600 acres perennial grasses, 19 acres wildlife, 48 acres water disposal areas. Mechanical practices carried out are: 84 miles terraces, 16 miles diversions, 9422 acres drained, 470 farm ponds constructed, and 240 ponds stocked with fish.

In addition to the above practices, many farmers have made major land use changes not reflected in the above accomplishments that will result in conservation of their soil.

The district has been instrumental in introducing several new plants to the county. Among these are tall fescue, ladino clover, rescue grass, bahia grass, lespedeza bicolor for wildlife; also the multiflora roses which are rapidly becoming popular for "living fences."

One of the most recent new plants brought into the county is costal bermuda, a hybrid bermuda, that gives promise of becoming a good hay and grazing plant for this section.

Forty farmers in the county have planted 200 bushels of sprigs to get increase patches for planting other areas. One farmer remarked: "For years I have fought it and now I have bought it." This statement is indicative of the trend toward grasses.

A number of farmers have expressed an interest in irrigation. The district will also be able to render assistance in this phase of work.

The real basis of the work of the dsitrict is the soils of Grenada County. Soil surveys have already been completed on over 200,000 acres by trained soil surveyors of the Soil Conservation Service. These detailed soil maps show soil type, slope, degree of erosion, and land use. The maps, when colored by the work unit technician, serve as a guide in pointing out the capabilities of the land and will aid the farmer in selecting the best land use.

On-the-farm technical assistance is carrying out a soil and water conservation program may be made to the district commissioners or work unit personnel mentioned above.

PRESSURE SAUCEPANS

Advantages

Saves Time . . . When you boil in an open saucepan, you are only cooking at the boiling temperature of water (212°F.). But when you cook at 15 pounds steam pressure, you are cooking at 250°F.—38° hotter. No wonder foods cook faster.

Saves Money . . . The result of a shorter cooking time is a reduced fuel bill. Less expensive cuts of meat can be cooked quickly and deliciously tender.

Saves Health . . . Foods cook with a minimum loss of nutritive values so essential to growth and resistance to disease, because they are not over-exposed to air, heat, and water.

Saves Appearance . . . Foods come to your table just as pleasing in color and texture and as deliciously fresh looking, as when you took pains to purchase them in that condition.

Do's and Don'ts

DO follow all directions for your cooker faithfully, and use the time schedules accurately. Don't even begin to cook in your new pressure saucepan until you are thoroughly familiar with opening and closing the cover.

DON'T overload your cooker. Foods should never come up to more than two-thirds of the depth of the pan. If any food rests against the cover, it may block the vent pipe or safety-release valve.

DO check the steam vent before putting the cover on the pan. Make sure it is clean and free from food particles. Most pressure saucepan manufacturers offer a cleaning wire that can be used to clean this tube.

DON'T store your cooker with the cover locked on. Keep the cover off, or, to save space, put the cover on upside down.

"SEEN, HEARD AND TOLD BY THE EDITOR"

We cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard. Acts 4:20

We were mighty to hear from S. W. Dow, a probational subscriber in Brockton, Mass. who wants to photograph some of my stuff and make printing reproductions thereof. Glad, too, to get check.

Andrew and Dorothy should have an easy time getting out this week, while Mabel and I are getting our feet (even the bottoms thereof) clean in Hot Springs this week.

One of the latest checks to arrive came from J. M. Williams, one of the Beat Two Williamses in Lambert in the swamp.

Here is what we cannot call a ram returned to the fold, but, maybe, an ewe returned to the fold. She is a mighty pretty widderwoman, Mrs. Ruby Hudson, Grenada.

During the past fifty years I have been to White Lake many, many times: on a mule, on a horse, in a wagon, walked, and on what they call shank's mare, also in a Model A and T Ford, and in a jeep. That's the way we went last Wednesday in Jeweler and Fisherman Davies' jeep, and that's the best way I ever found to go to White Lake. Davies is a dern good fellow and an expert jeep-er. Caterer T. Darras was along and said he caught about 30 fish, also said he threw them all back. Davies and I caught about 25, many big enough to swim (and keep). Policeman Pet Ray caught a few - all big enough to keep. Pet is the first man on record to return a fish stringer and he should be honored. It's just a lie that I am going to Hot Springs this week to get over that jep trip to White Lake.

Items From Beat 5: Morris Mabry paid up; Tom Vance brought in a good excuse, which is just as good as cash money; Planter Fulton McRee was in Grenada sady.

Both East and West helped us pay our way to Hot Springs: Lamar Staten of Oxberry in the West; Maggie Bowdry of the Mighty East. Lamar is a substantial farmer at Oxberry; Maggie and her folks are substantial colored folks in Beat Two, tho she was on of the Wiggins family and came originally from Oxberry. 2 birds with 1 stone.

Mabel and I plan to stay at the Majestic Hotel in Hot Springs about a week and hope to get home next Saturday.

A lotta stuff contained in this issue was intended for last week but the flood of ads forced us to omit a lotta stuff.

Amateur fisherman Charles Dattel must have got cut-off, but he came in with a renewal check, also brought a big ad for this week; and that's a hint to others who can bring in a big ad when they bring in subscription money.

David Hankins Dies At Duck Hill

David F. Hankins, 71, died at his home at Duck Hill at 6 a. m. Wednesday, April 15, 1953.

Surviving are his wife; four sons, Houston of Memphis; J. D. Kankins of Grenada; W. B. of Peoria, Ill.; Troy of Tupelo; a daughter, Mrs. Noland Franks of Dorsey, Miss.; a brother, R. S. Hankins of East Tupelo; 10 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild.

The funeral will be held at 2:30 p. m. Thursday in East Tupelo.

I can not call myself a cattleman or a grass man; but I read in the Christian Science Monitor what one successful Oklahoma cattleman said. He said that he left the first three inches of grass for the land itself.
